ADTR Guiding Principles

Colorado's statewide admissions policy promotes access and provides a transparent and inclusive way for all prospective students and affiliated constituents to understand the multiple pathways to post secondary education; the policy provides flexibility for all institutions and equity for all students and is based upon data, best practices and alignment with P-12, high school graduation guidelines, statewide remedial education policy, and transfer policy.