Early Childhood Education	ECE does not meet the requirements of 23-1-108(7) which states that statewide transfer articulation agreements are between degree programs. ECE is not a degree program. However, the IHEs are still participating in this agreement.					Current agreement still in effect (10/6/2004; revised 1/9/2012)
Economics - Bachelor's Degree	Fall 2009	completed	completed	completed	approval confirmed	1/7/2011 (effective 4/1/2011)
Elementary Education	ELED does not meet the requirements of 23-1-108(7) which states that statewide transfer articulation agreements are between degree programs. ELED is not a degree program. However, the IHEs are still participating in this agreement.					Current agreement still in effect (7/1/2006; revised 11/10/2010)
Engineering	Engineering does not meet the requirements of 23-1-108(7) which states that statewide transfer articulation agreements are between degree programs. There are many types of engineering degrees (e.g., Petroleum Engineer, Civil Engineer, Chemical Engineer). This agreement covers them all and so varies widely depending on which 4-year IHE the student transfers into and which type of engineering degree she/he chooses. IHEs are participating in this agreement.					2/2009 (effective Spring 2009)
French - BA	Fall 2010	2/1/2011	4/27/2011	10/18/2011	4/30/2012; 5/4/2012	Effective 8/1/2012
Graphic Design - Bachelor's Degree	Fall 2012	It was decided by the faculty that a statewide transfer articulation agreement is not feasible at this time. Four-year institutions agreed to work on articulation agreements individually with regional two-year institutions.
History - BA	Fall 2009	9/1/2010	12/1/2010	2/1/2011	3/16/2011; to CCHE 4/1/2011	4/1/2011
Math - Bachelor's Degree	Fall 2009	9/1/2010	12/1/2010	2/1/2011	3/16/2011; to CCHE 4/1/2011	4/1/2011
Nursing (BSN)	Fall 2011	Nursing schools decided that an articulation agreement was not feasible and they would stay with their current regional agreements, which serve students better than a statewide agreement would.
Political Science - BA	Fall 2010	2/1/2011	2/1/2011	6/14/2011	12/9/2011; 3/2/2012	Effective 8/1/2012
