Dr. Julie Carnahan
Chief Academic Officer
Colorado Department of Higher Education
1560 Broadway, Suite 1600
Denver, CO 80202

Dear Dr. Carnahan:

The proposed Master of Applied Industrial/Organizational Psychology to be offered through the Department of Psychology in the College of Natural Sciences to be offered at Colorado State University has been reviewed and approved through the institution's established curricular and administrative processes. These reviews included an analysis of the proposed program's fit with the statutory role and mission of Colorado State University, its academic and instructional standards, its admission standards, and established standards governing the quality of its faculty.

As Interim Provost of Colorado State University, I certify that this degree meets all these standards. The proposed degree was approved by the Board of Governors of the Colorado State University System at its February 25, 2009 meeting.

Sincerely,

Rick Miranda
Interim Provost and Executive Vice President
